

Gregory Andrews

Integrity, Respect, Diversity

Gregory is a First Australian from D'harawal Country with the Lyrebird Dreaming.

Gregory is the Managing Director of Lyrebird Dreaming Pty Ltd. He worked as a Public Servant for 31 years including for 15 years at SES levels in the Departments of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Environment, Climate Change, and Indigenous Affairs.

Gregory has represented Australia as an Ambassador and High Commissioner in West Africa, and as a diplomat in China, Japan and the United Nations. He was Australia's first-appointed Threatened Species Commissioner. He wrote and implemented Australia's first Threatened Species Strategy and first Threatened Species Prospectus.

As a not-for-profit CEO, Gregory led, grew and reformed a national Indigenous charity. He is an experienced Indigenous champion and career mentor for First Nations peoples.

Gregory speaks French and Mandarin. He has an Honours Degree in Econometrics and a Masters in Foreign Affairs and Trade.

Gregory is an Associate Adjunct Professor at the University of Canberra and owns and manages a 50 hectare conservation property in NSW.

Gregory is currently co-designing an Indigenous Employment Strategy and Indigenous Career Investment Program for Parliament House.

Policy leadership

Government and private-sector influence

Communications, media and social media

Negotiation and influence

Government funding and programs knowhow

Indigenous leadership and coaching

Indigenous policy, engagement and consultation

Biodiversity conservation

Climate change